OVERCROWDING

The responsible authorities will also continue to examine the problem of overcrowded classrooms, the Education Ministry spokesman told The Post. In response to reports that a Government-teachers parity committee was likely to be ap-pointed to work out plans for re-ducing classroom crowding the spokesman said no such committee had yet been set up.

Three world swimming records set

MUNICH.— Three world records were broken in the swimming pool here last night on the second day of Olympic competition with the two super stars, Mark Spitz of the U.S. and Australia's Shane Gould, leading the way home.

For the 22-year-old Spitz, an individual failure at Mexico four years ago, the first day of swimming proved a double triumph because he also anchored the U.S. sprint relay team to victory.

The mustachioed Spitz clocked
2:00.7 to win the 200-metre butterfly 'rom American teammates Gary Hall ind Robin Backhaus, and bettered he record of 2:01.5 he posted during the U.S. trials earlier this mouth. The U.S. clocked 3:26.42 in the elay to beat the old record of 3:283. which they achieved in their heat arlier in the day, to win from the loviet Union and East Germany.

Miss Gould, the 15-year old Australian sensation who is going for in unprecedented seven titles, as is spitz, turned in a tremendous freeityle leg to make up a deficit of about one metre to win the individual nedley in 2:23.07. She won from Kor-lelia Ender of East Germany and America's Lynn Vidali.

TEL AVIV. — Bottled cooking gas is being used by a number of industrial firms to run their forklifts. The forklifts operate indoors part of the time, and it has been found that they give off much less noxious fumes on gas than they do on petrol.

The use of gas is being promoted by the Amisragas Company in conjunction with Borg-Warner of the U.S. So far, 100 forklifts have been converted to bottled gas in 15 plants.

The Ministry of Transport has recently begun a study of the economic and technical feasibility of switching taxi tabs to gas economic and technical feasibility of switching taxi cabs to gas to reduce urban air pollution. An Amisragas spokesman claimed gas use was 30 per cent cheaper than petrol. The gas is nearly completely consumed inside the engine, engine life is prolonged

Mr. Rafael Fradis, General Manager of Amisragas, told The Jerusalem Post last night that the main changes in converting an automobile engine to gas is in the carburettor.

There are two ways of adapting an automobile to gas, he said.

One is to carry two balloons of gas. When one gets empty, you

The second possibility, Mr. Fradis said, is to turn the existing petrol tank into a gas container, which can be filled with gas whenever you feel like it at a gas station, nearly the same way that you take petrol.

He also pointed out that gas takes you the same distance that petrol does. If for instance your car does 12 kilometers per litre of petrol, it will do the same on (liquified) gas.

He pointed out that a dual-purpose carburettor can be installed in taxis to enable them to use either gas or petrol. The taxi driver could use gas in the city and petrol outside. He noted that in the U.S., Holland, Denmark and Italy many taxi cabs are already

Pre-fab school burns down in Ashkelon

ASHKELON. -- A 14-classroom elementary school in the Shimshon Quarter here was razed by a fire on Sunday evening, just five days before the opening of the school year.

Neighbours noticed smoke billowing out of the Ben-Zvi Elementary School about seven in the evening and summoned the Fire Brigade. The firemen extinguished the blaze within two hours and left the scene. But the fire started anew after they left.

All the firemen could do when they returned was to keep it from spreading to neighbouring buildings.

An official investigation was under way yesterday, as school officials pondered over where to send the pupils when school starts on Friday. The head of the Ashkelon Municipal Education Department, Mr. Zadok Doron, told "Itim" there appeared to be no alternative to opening afternoon shifts in nearby schools to accommodate the Ben-Zvi pupils.

Arafat returns to Beirut in 'cod war'

The Fatah chief was expected to leave Beirut last night or today for a meeting of the terrorist roofbody, the Executive Committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization in Damascus. The meeting was called to discuss the situation of the terrorist movement in light of the tight controls placed on it by Syria and Lebanon. The main issue now facing the terrorists is the re-vival of rifts between the various groupings at a time when the movement consists only of remnants in Lebanon and Syria and a number of saboteurs stationed in Europe.

In an apparent bid to raise morale Arafat boasted, before he left Cairo, that Libya was training 8,000 He said the number of these volunteers "will double in the next few

Munich okays new fibreglass pole in vault

MUNICH (AP). — The Interna-tional Amateur Athletic Federation (IAAF) on Sunday reversed its on Sunday, winning the flyweight Olympic ban on the American-made weightlifting event after the surprise "catapole" and approved the fibre-collapse of the mighty mite from An IAAF spokesman said the decision was taken because the pole was found to fulfil regulations governing the event.

The LAAF decided earlier this summer to ban the pole from the games because European athletes complained it was not made available to them. The opponents based their stand on the IAAF rule requiring vaulting poles to be available on the open market for a year prior to use in the Olympic competition.

Bob Seagren used the catapole in his world record leap of 5.63 metres at the U.S. Olympic team trials. It is 1.5 ounces lighter and fractionally catapole manufacturer George Moore appeared before the federation in Munich and appealed for a reversal of the decision.

A 32-year-old Jakarta paint-factory worker, Charlie Depthios, set a new world's record for the clean and jerk in the event, but it did not count towards a medal. Depthios jerked 132.5 kilos on an unofficial fourth try, bettering the old world record of 132 kilos held by A. Gnatov of the Soviet Union.

His attempt came after an indif-ferent performance in the regular competition, where he was able to make 125 kilos only on his third attempt. This placed him ninth. Then came his unofficial fourth try, which although not recognized as an Olympic record, will count as a world record.

Strong reaction to first East-West German encounter

MUNICH. - The first direct confrontation between East and Wes Germany at the 1972 Olympic Games brought a strong reaction from the packed crowd at the boxing championship here Sunday.

When East German Jochen Bachfeld was awarded the points verdict over West German

Peter Prause, the featherweight Peter Prause, the spectators erupted into a storm of derision as they whistled piercingly for five minutes to show their disapproval.

The East German was given the verdict on a 5-0 decision by the judges. The largely West German crowds appeared swayed by Prause's late challenge in the final round, which came much too late to have any effect on the U.S. wants to pay less to U.N.

UNITED NATIONS (AP). - The United States has launched a new campaign to get the American assessment for the United Nations reduced to "no more than 25 per cent" of the world organization's regular

The U.S. tab in 1972 amounted to 31.52 per cent, or $64m., the highest of the 132 U.N. members.

In his first budget as U.N. Secretary-General, Dr. Kurt Waldheim has asked the General Assembly to approve expenditures of $224m. in 1973, an increase of 5.17 per cent over 1972.

A highly placed U.S. official told reporters the American move for a reduction "is not in retaliation for things the U.N. has done that we don't like... although there are in-dividuals in this country who would portray it in this light."

A storm of criticism of the U.N. boiled up in Congress and elsewhere last year when Nationalist China was expelled in a stunning defeat for the U.S. The U.S. delegation advised the General Assembly last year that It wanted a reduction to 25 per cent. It renewed the compaign in a memorandum just issued to all mem-

In addition to the budget assessment, the U.S. pays larger sums in voluntary contributions to U.N. activities.

The memorandum points out that in 1971, for example, "The contribu-tions of the U.S. to the activities of the U.N. system approached one-half billion dollars, including humanitarian relief.

"The U.S. to date has contributed more than $4 billion to the U.N. system, with $1.2 billion of this amount going to pay assessments for the regular budgets of organizations in the U.N. system.

"This record demonstrates continued United States support for a more effective and strengthened U.N., including its intention to maintain U.S. voluntary contributions at a high level."

The memorandum said the U.S. Government hopes the reduction in its assessment can be accomplished through the admission of new members and hikes in the assessments of a few members, "reflecting their comparative economic growth.

A U.S. official said it was hoped, for example, that the two Germanys would be admitted by 1973.

He said also that Communist China realized that it should pay more than the 4 per cent assessment the nationalist regime on Taiwan paid. "It might go up by 3 or 4 per cent," he said.

Argentine chides Chile on escaped hijackers

BUENOS AIRES (Reuter). - Argentina yesterday accused Chile of Ignoring international law by allowing 10 guerrilla hijackers to leave

A protest note delivered to the Chilean foreign ministry early yes-terday was described as very severe by Argentine foreign ministry The left-wing guerrillas, including a 23-year-old woman schoolteacher, flew to Havana on Friday, 10 days after they arrived in Santiago aboard a hijacked BAC-111 jet airliner of Argentina's Austral Airline.

They seized the airliner at Trelew airport in Southern Argentina after six of them had escaped from nearby Rawson top-security jail. On Tuesday last week 19 supporters who helped organize the escape and hijack and then surrendered to Argentine security forces were machine-gunned by military guards at Trelew. Sixteen of them were killed or fatally wounded. The Trelew incident was a major factor in persuading Chile's Marxist President Salvador Allende to bow to extreme left-wing pressure and grant the 10 fugitives political asylum, then "expel" them to Cuba, observers in Santiago said. The Argentine protest note handed to Chilean Ambassador Ramon Huidbro Dominguez here on Monday night — accused President Allende of "ignoring international law and, in particular, not com-plying with the treaty of extradi-tion."

It added that the decision to let the guerrillas go had broken "an inflexible rule in relations between our two countries."

The note, signed by Argentine Foreign Minister Eduardo McLoughlin, expressed amazement at the Chilean government argument that there were "reasonable doubts" against the Argentine case that the fugitives were common criminals, not political prisoners.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - LINKAGE OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

- A The assets (excluding Government bonds) and liabilities, linked or in foreign currency, are included in the Balance Sheet as
 - (1) Those linked to the Cost-of-Living Index on the basis of the index for February 1972 (31.3.1971 - for February
 - (2) Those with the option of being linked to the Cost-of-Living Index or not - on the higher of the two bases, i.e. for the unlinked - at face value plus interest accrued thereon (31,3,1971 - on the same basis).
 - (3) Those linked to the Mortgage Index on the basis of the latest Mortgage Index, published in November 1966 (31.3.1971 on the same basis).
 - (4) Those in foreign currency at the official rate prevailing on 31st March 1972 (31.3.1971 - at the official rate prevailing on that date).
- B Linkage and exchange differences on assets and liabilities are included in the finencial statements on an accrual basis.

The linkage and exchange increments payable for the year of account exceed the linkage and exchange increments receivable by the net amount of IL.2,152,072 (31.3.1971 - IL.657,319); of which IL.487,102 (31.3.1971 - nil) result from the changes in exchange rates.

C - The Bank bears the differences arising from linkage to the Cost-of-Living Index of a loan of IL.2,000,000 which the Subsidiary Company received from a third party (for repayment over a period ending in 1983) in consideration for an annual premium paid by the Subsidiary Company at the rate of 4% of

IL100,000 grant to promote local playwriting

Jeijin Jigo

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. - The Ministry of Education and the Tel Aviv Cultural Foundation are to spend IL100,000 to promote original Israeli playwriting, Miss Lea Porat, of the Ministry, and Mr. Eliahu Speizer, of Tel Aviv Municipality, told the Press here yesterday.

The Municipality has also put the hall and stage of the municipal em-ployees house, in Rehov Pumpadita, at the disposal of a Tel Aviv studio which promotes original plays. It is expected that eight to 10 productions a year will be staged by the studio. Each new production will be staged for a maximum of nine times, after which the group of performers will be free to exploit their success

(if any) through private impresarios.

Actor-director Shmuel Atzmon has assumed management of the studio for a year. Of 46 manuscripts submitted in the past three months, Mr. Atzmon said that three will be presented, beginning in November. They were all written by young authors — Moshe Ben Shaul, Yitz-hak Goren and Motty Averbuch. Miriam Zohar and Nahum Buchman are among actors who have accept-ed roles in the plays.

Ninety per cent of the manuscripts received were declared un-suitable by persons to whom the entries are sent for an opinion. Entries by new immigrants writing in a foreign language will also be considered, the press was told.

'Downward trend' seen in U.S. violent crime

WASHINGTON (Reuter). - A violent crime was committed on average every 39 Seconds in the United States last year, Attorney-General Richard Kleindienst reported yesterday.

They included a murder every 30 minutes, a rape every 13 minutes and a robbery every 82

Serious crime grew by seven per cent last year, but this was the smallest increase in six years, Mr. Kleindienst said in a statement accompanying his annual report, prepared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

He noted that the downward trend had continued into this year, with the first three months showing an increase of only one per cent over the corresponding 1971 period, the smallest increase in 11 years.

During 1971, the report said, 54 of the country's biggest cities reported reductions in serious

"We are encouraged by the trends we are seeing," Mr. Klein-dienst said in his statement, but crime is still increasing. This is a matter that must continue to be of foremost concern to law enforcement agencies at all levels of government." Listing violent crimes, the report showed that murder was up by 11 per cent over 1970, rape by 11 per cent, aggravated assault by 10 per cent and robbery by 11 per cent.

Police solved 34 per cent of the murders reported, 55 per

Section 64(b) provides that:

Section 9(c) lays down that:

In the appeal to the Supreme Court against the District Court Judgment Justice Landau, who delivered the judgment of the Supreme Court, Justices Witkon and Cohn concurring, noted that the cost of guarding property is not included in the prescribed in the Regulations and that the District Court had held, therefore, that the Execution Officer could have certified these costs, by virtue of section 9(c) of the Execution Law, either before or after

In upholding this decision, Justice Landau said he agreed with the District Court that the reason why costs of the nature of those incurred in the present case are not prescribed for in the Regulations lies in the fact that they are incurred by strangers to the proceedings (the Lands Administration in the present case) appointed to fulfil specific duties in which capacity they paid the costs out of their own pockets;

whereas the costs prescribed for in the Regulations on the other hand, are such as are paid for by the judgment creditor for purposes of the execution proceedings and are then later defrayed by the judgment debtor together with the judgment debt. In cases such as the present, therefore, he continued the costs would be such as are certified by the Execution Officer, and there is no reservation in the Law - nor

A NEW SPORT

TWICE in a matter of days Israel has been out to shame by sportsmen it sent abroad to bring it at least honour, if not glory. Eight days ago the football champions, Maccabi Tel Aviv. walked off a soccer pitch in San Francisco after a squabble. Now there is the Israel Olympic team's non-appearance (save for four members) at the Dachau memorial service which the Germans arranged to precede the opening of the Games. There have been protests here that so few other national teams sent representatives to the ceremony. It proves we had little right to complain of the remissness of others.

The blame for the absence of most of the Israel contingent from the Dachau memorial service should be placed more with the offhand attitude of the numerous "officials" who are accompanying the competitors than to these themselves. The sportsmen may claim that an emotional experience on the eve of the Games could affect their performance. The officials have not even this excuse.

Since the group's arrival at the Games the number of officials has multiplied, and it can be assumed that none of them paid their own way to Munich, these free visits representing a new "sport."

Heading the Israel party is

Mr. Yosef Inbar, Chairman of the Olympic Committee, although he was sharply censured by the Etzioni Football Inquiry a year ago. After eight years as Secretary of Hapoel even Histadrut Secretary-General Yitzhak Ben-Aharon's open op-position was not sufficient to prevent his re-election.

It is time that more official thought and care were given to the organizing of sports in this country, or soon lost matches will come to seem the least of the evils in Israel

VIOLENCE is undivided. like peace. Rabbi Meir Kahane's career has included strong-arm tactics at one remove at almost every stage. He had sympathizers and admirers when he organized security patrols for Jewish schoolboys unable to get to their homes in racially mixed sections of New York without being molested and harassed. There was less sympathy when his Jewish Defence League was accustomed to claim, in their turn, that they had molested and harassed Soviet diplomats and their families in New York.

There has been precious little sympathy for the activities of J.D.L. hooligans here, when they interfered with demonstrations of which they did not approve. Recently there has been widespread anger at the attempt to harass and provoke Sheikh Ja'abari, Mayor of Hebron. As the man conspicuous for his courage in speaking out for Arab-Jewish co-existence, the independent-minded Sheikh will not have been frightened by the Rabbi, but there is reason to fear that one Kahane could undo much of the peace-making work of the past five years. Yesterday, Rabbi Kahane told the foreign press about a group that plans to kidnap Soviet diplomats in New York, "to force the U.S.S.R. to revoke their ransom demands for Soviet Jews.' The margin between knowing those responsible, "condoning" their plans and acting as their spokesman, and being responsible for their actions is dangerously narrow. Violence is in-divisible, and random violence is a crime against justified political protest. Rabbi Kahane, who has only very recently come to live in Israel, gravely underestimates Israel's desire for peaceful negotiations at all levels.

Indo-Pak. goodwill evaporating TROOST

By TREVOR DRIEBERG Jerusalem Post Correspondent

NEW DELHI. THE goodwill and understanding I generated between India and Pa-kistan at the Simla conference barely two months ago is evaporating fast. The suspicion deepens here daily that President Bhutto is unable to fulfil the pledges he gave Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in the. agreement they signed after the summit meeting, as well as orally. His inability - some say unwillingness — to do this appears partly due to pressure from the topmost levels of the Pakistani armed forces, and partly to Chinese prod-ding to get Islamabad to take a tougher attitude to New Delhi.

One of these pledges was early recognition of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, accompanied by that country's entry into the U.N. Now China has blocked entry in the Security Council, and the obvious inference drawn here is that Pakistan does not intend recognizing the new state in the immediate future. The logical consequence of these develop- Street scene in Dacca. ments is that India will not return the 94,000 Pakistani prisoners of war since Bangladesh must agree to this transfer and will not do so without prior recognition.

Prime Minister Mujibur Rahman has repeatedly said he would not negotiate with Pakistan on any issue until Islamabad accepts his country's independence as an irreversible fact. The Chinese veto will only stiffen Dacca's views on this issue,

To the Editor of The Jerusalem Post Sir, — I am not a Jew, but I am a great admirer of Jewish heroism, past and present, I have no quarrel with the Arabs and I only wish that they and your brave countrymen will one day reach a fair and amicable settlement of their long, drawn-out dispute without bipodshed.

Next spring, it will be the 19th centenary of one of the most thrilling and heroic episodes of Jewish history, namely your resistance at Masada. I would suggest that, on that occasion, special commemorative celebrations be organized in Mass. da to remind the Jewish generations of their ancestors' brave heroism.

THE Party Secretary is putting a question to the colonel in charge of the secret police, in his huge office lined with files on every man and woman in the district. "Are you sure, with all your Communist conscience, that these men worked deliberately to bring us to disaster?"

Through thin lips, the colonel replies: "If necessary, it can be made to appear that way ... "

This is a scene, a central scene, from a film made not in the anti-Communist West but in Rumania. It comes from "The Power and the Truth." an enormous 22-reel colour epic on the post-war tragedies and triumphs of the Rumanian Communist Party which had its premiere in Bucharest early this year. With moments like this in it, nobody is surprised that it has been playing to packed cinemias up and down the land ever since.

POLITICAL POLICE

Few Rumanians travel West: the political police is as industrious and vigilant as ever. And yet a film like 'The Power and the Truth,' shows that the Rumanian leadership under President Nicolae Ceausescu wants the nation to understand that the Party regards the monstrous injustices of the fifties with horror, and is determined — while maintaining discipline - never to return

But it is both a pledge, and a sort of inoculation.

Implicitly, the film promises that Rumania will never return to arbitrary terror, or to grandiose planning conceived without regard to human cost or economic effectiveness. And it is an attempt to incsigned to the torturers of the secret culate Rumanian public opinion against any uncontrolled surge towards liberalized socialism, by injecting a measured dose of selfcriticism by the Party for its excesses in the past.

"The Power and the Truth," made by the famous director Titus Popovici, contains many obvious references to the terrifying "Confession," the film about the Slansky trials by Costas Gavras: Engineer Petrescu, for example, is driven to
